HIP HOP WORKSHOP TOUR -HAWAII-

April 16th
2:00-3:30pm
Studio 1

$15 Members | $18 Non-Members

Dancers Unlimited has taught dance workshops at studios in Shanghai, Beijing, Taipei, Tokyo, and here in Hawaii. Last October, they had the honor to represent USA at the World Expo in Shanghai, an event attended by 400,000 people. The Workshop Tour is a part of the many events that will lead up to National Dance Week Hawaii 2011 (May 15- 22).

Dancers Unlimited hope to share their passion and talent with the world, while providing opportunities for Hawaii dancers. Linda Kuo, the director of Dancers Unlimited, will be teaching the workshop with Brent Koki. Linda dances professionally in New York. Her credits include Peter Pan Asia Tour (Dancer) , MTV Dances From Da Hood (Dancer), MTV America's Best Dance Crew On-Demand (Dancer), Lil Mama VYP Album Release (Dancer). Brent trained with 24-7 Dance Force and Hyper Squad before pursuing dance professionally in L.A. He went on to train with Phi Nguyen from the Jabawockees, Jaffar Smith, and danced with Unity L.A. Currently, Brent is based in Hawaii and teaches at Hyper Squad and 24-7. He is also a member of the battle crew, Hype Beast.
